

Your First Year in CTE: 10 MORE Things to Know

NEW!

Navigating a new classroom can be daunting for any new teacher, but for a new Career and Technical Education (CTE) teacher, it may be more overwhelming. Our first book "Your First Year in CTE: 10 Things to Know" was focused on developing relationships and surviving the first three months in the classroom and was well received by both new and veteran teachers.

In response to numerous requests from the CTE community, and because of the need for such a resource, NOCTI and ACTE are excited to announce the next book in this series which goes beyond a CTE teacher's first three months. This resource emphasizes the importance of expanding relationships with students, parents, other educators, and industry. There are tips for planning, enhancing content, using assessments, and interpreting data.

Surviving and thriving as a new CTE teacher takes mentoring, encouragement, and a whole lot of networking; this book provides the basic tools to help build and support a successful CTE program. It is an essential resource for both new and veteran CTE teachers and one you'll want to keep nearby!

John Foster // Pamela Foster // Clyde Hornberger // Kathleen McNally

Your First Year in CTE:

10 MORE THINGS

to KNOW

Now exclusively available online at ShopACTE!

Topics Include:

- ★ Planning Daily and Annual Activities
- ★ Enhancing Content Through Career Technical Student Organizations
- ★ Understanding Student Assessment
- ★ Using Assessment Data
- ★ Connecting with Parents and Advisory Committees
- ★ Understanding Basics of Individualized Education Programs (IEP)

$19.95/ACTE member price
$24.95/non-member price

Order Now!

800.826.9972
www.acteonline.org

800.334.6283
www.nocti.org